Parents Magazine Names Color Me Mine Top 10

Glendale, CA –

Color Me Mine, the world's largest Paint-It-Yourself ceramics franchise, placed in the top 10 Best Birthday Chains survey given by Parents Magazine. Parents has been America's #1 family magazine for more than 80 years and has been a trusted source by every generation of parents.

Parents magazine surveyed the birthday party packages offered by a variety of national chains to assess which offer the most entertaining, unique and personalized experience at a reasonable price.

They looked at what each place provided in terms of fun, games and food as well as extras such as invites, party ware and goody bag favors. The availability of instructors, personalization level, and party room size were also taken into consideration. Most importantly, the 10 Best Birthday Party Chains are affordable, with rates as low as $12 per kid. The exclusive findings from the nationwide survey were revealed April 6, 2010.

“Our May issue is devoted to birthday parties and we wanted to find out which party chains not only throw fun birthday parties that kids will love, but offer affordable packages that will make parents happy,” says Dana Points, editor-in-chief of Parents. “We examined more than 40 popular party spots to bring readers the 10 best ones. They’ll tailor the bash to your child’s interests, offer proper supervision and handle the cleanup—so mom and dad can enjoy the party too.”

“We were thrilled to hear Color Me Mine was chosen as part of Parents Magazine’s Top 10 Birthday Parties list. We feel proud to be included in such a well respected publication’s survey and listed among such great company. We consider birthday parties a main ingredient to the art of having fun at Color Me Mine!” says Tara Barnett, Director of Marketing for Color Me Mine Enterprises, Inc.

Color Me Mine is the Paint-It-Yourself Ceramics studio where you can discover the Art Of Having Fun.
